

What are we doing to our Children?

HOW SOCIETAL PRESSURES ARE AFFECTING OUR SCHOOLS AND WORKPLACES

Dr. Marcy Guddemi

Executive Director
Gesell Institute of Child Development

Dr. Marcy Guddemi, Executive Director of the Gesell Institute, and former Texas State University professor, is a widely recognized expert in early childhood education and assessment. The Gesell Institute, located on the Yale campus, is focused on educating and supporting teachers and parents in order to ensure the future success of all children, in the United States and abroad.

OCT. 4, 2011 • 6-7:30 P.M.
TEACHING THEATRE, 4TH FLOOR
LBJ STUDENT CENTER

TELECAST TO ROUND ROCK HIGHER EDUCATION CENTER, AVERY BUILDING ROOM 252, TEACHING THEATRE

Who should attend:

- education: future teachers, administrators, teachers and staff
- psychology: counselors, psychologists, therapists
- family and consumer science: parents, caregivers
- medical: child development and care
- criminal justice: safety, public service
- communications: networks and service
- social work: aiding and nurturing families
- general public: concerns of families, community, organizations and businesses

Sponsored by: University Lecture Series | The Common Experience 2011-2012 | Center for Children and Families | College of Education
Department of Curriculum and Instruction | College of Applied Arts | School of Family and Consumer Sciences
Department of Criminal Justice | College of Liberal Arts | Department of Psychology

Supported by: University Student Organizations | Community and Professional Groups

Parking: Park and pay at the Student Center parking garage

For more information contact: The Department of Curriculum and Instruction (512.245.2157)

Kathy Fite, main campus (kf02@txstate.edu) or Jessica Ligon, RRHEC (jl50@txstate.edu)

TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY
SAN MARCOS

A member of The Texas State University System

